

SECOND OFFERINGS

Offerings are taken on Sunday mornings. If you're not a regular at Mack, please feel no obligation to give, but just pass the bag on. We have two offerings, one for general church expenses, the other for a specific cause. This month's second offerings are as follows:

4th - Cardiff Concern

11th - Mike Thomas car fund

18th - Church weekend away

25th - Mack Missionaries

COMMUNION AT MACK

When indicated that the service includes communion, the bread and wine will be brought to you in your seats.

We believe that by sharing bread and wine together we proclaim the death of Jesus as the only way we can be made right with a holy God. If you have made this personal commitment to the Lord Jesus, we invite you to share the bread and wine with us. If this is not where you are in your relationship with Jesus, then please stay and enjoy the service but please pass the bread and wine along to the next person when it is passed to you.

Is God a tyrant? Joshua 6:22-27

John Griffiths

'Be strong and courageous,' God told Joshua. This month we see his courage put to the test as Israel face their first battle in the Promised Land. If you want to live courageously, to rely on the promises of God whatever battles you may face, this is the series for you.

Sunday evening. 6.30pm

When the going gets tough, the tough get praying. Jeremiah 12 and 20

Caleb Woodbridge

While Joshua spearheaded victory, Jeremiah stands on the cusp of defeat. God has abandoned his people to their enemies. Their only hope is surrender.

For forty years Jeremiah stood by a message that saw him branded a liar, a heretic and a traitor. But what can we learn from this extraordinary man today? Come along and find out.
